GENERAL SICKLES' ORDER FOR REGISTRATION.

General Orders, No. 18.

1. On the 3d Monday of July next, in obedience to the requirements of the act of Congress, passed March 23, 1867, the Commanding General will proceed and cause to be made a registration of the male citizens of the United States, 21 years of age and upwards, residents of North and South Carolina, not distranchised for participation in the rebellion.

2. One or more Boards of Registration, consisting of three discreet and qualified persons, to be appointed by the Commanding General, will be organized in each county or city to make and complete the registration, superintend the election to be held thereafter for delegates to a convention to frame a constitution, and make returns to him of the votes, list of voters, and of the persons elected as delegates by a plurality of the votes cast at such election.

3. The counties in North Carolina and the geographical districts in South Carolina will, for the purpose of registration, be divided into convenient registration precincts, and in each precinct a Board of Registers will, if practicable, be organized. Several places will be designated in each registration precinct where the Board will meet, and citizens, eligible to registration, may go and be registered. The Board of Registers will remain in session two days from sunrise to sunset at each place of meeting.—On the adjournment of the Boards a copy of the list of persons registered will be deposited in a suitable place within the precinct, seven days for the public information, and thereafter the Board will again visit every precinct and revise the list of voters, hear objections from citizens as to any adjudication made, and register any person who may have been unable, by reason of illness or other good and sufficient cause, to attend the first session of the Board.

4. All persons appointed to make the said registration of voters, and to conduct said election, will be required, before entering on their duties, to take and subscribe to the oath prescribed by the act approved July 2d, 1862, entitled, "An act to prescribe the oath of office," and if any person shall falsely take such oath, he, if convicted, shall be subject to the penalties prescribed by law for wilful perjury. The form of the oath is hereinafter prescribed, as follows:

I, A. B., do solemnly swear or affirm that I have never voluntarily borne arms against the United States since I have been a citizen thereof; that I have voluntarily given no aid, countenance, counsel or encouragement to persons engaged in armed hostility thereto; I have neither sought nor accepted, nor attempted to exercise, the functions of any office whatever under any authority or pretended authority in hostility to the United States; that I have not yielded a voluntary support to any pretended government, authority, power or constitution within the United States hostile or inimical thereto; and I do further swear that to the best of my knowledge and ability I will support, aid and defend the Constitution of the United States against all enemies, foreign or domestic; that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the same; that I take this obligation freely, without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion, and that I will well and faithfully perform the duties of the office upon which I am about to enter. So help me God.

5. Members of the Boards of Registration will be allowed as compensation $4 per day for each day actually and necessarily employed in the performance of their duties, and ten cents a mile for each mile traveled on duty, and officers of the army detailed for such duty will be paid the per diem and mileage allowed for attendance on Courts martial.

6. Any citizen desiring to serve as a member of the Board may forward his application to these headquarters. No application will be considered unless accompanied by a written recommendation, signed by either the Provisional Governor of the State, a District or Circuit Judge of the United States Court, a Collector or other principal officer at Customs or of Internal Revenue, the Assistant Commissioner of the Freedmen's Bureau, or the commanding officer of a military post within which the applicant resides, certifying the applicant to be a fit person to receive the appointment.

7. It is essential that every Board should be composed of persons of recognized consideration and worth, fairly representing the population, and in whose impartiality and capacity the body of voters in the vicinage may have just reliance.

8. The boundaries of the precincts for registration, in the several places within each precinct where the Board will meet, the day or days on which the Board will meet in each precinct, and also such regulations as may be necessary for the government of registers and inspectors of elections in the discharge of their duties and to insure the accuracy and completeness of the registration, will be duly published for general information.

9. Post Commanders will report without delay upon the most expedient division of the territory within their commands into registration precincts, having reference, when practicable, to existing laws and customs establishing the usual voting places, and keeping in view the importance of affording ample facilities for registration with the least interruption of the ordinary avocations of the people.

By command of Major-General
D. E. SICKLES.

It is curious, to say nothing more, to observe with what unanimity the Radical press have dropped all allusion to the stories of Southern outrages. We hear nothing now about "burning school houses," "murdered freedmen," "expelled Unionists," and all the varied catalogue of crimes charged upon the South with which the columns of the Radical press teemed for months. Kentucky now seems to be the focus of Radical assault. We are told that "negroes are killed," "Union speakers mobbed," "United States soldiers resisted," and "the spirit of the people is rebellious" beyond endurance. The cry will be taken up, we have no doubt, on all sides, in order to prepare for Congressional interference with a State which ventures to give an overwhelming majority against the Radical ticket.—National Intelligencer.

ASTROLOGY.

THE WORLD ASTONISHED

AT THE WONDERFUL REVELATIONS

MADE BY THE GREAT ASTROLOGIST,

Madame H. A. PERRIGO.

She reveals secrets no mortal ever knew. She restores to happiness those who, from doleful events, catastrophes, crosses in love, loss of relations and friends, loss of money, &c., have become despondent. She brings together those long separated, gives information concerning absent friends or lovers, restores lost or stolen property, tells you the business you are best qualified to pursue and in what you will be most successful; causes speedy marriages and tells you the very day you will marry, gives you the name, likeness and characteristics of the person. She reads your very thoughts, and by her almost supernatural powers unveils the dark and hidden mysteries of the future. From the stars we see in the firmament—the maleficent stars that overcome or predominate in the configuration—from the aspects and positions of the planets and the fixed stars in the heavens at the time of birth, she deduces the future destiny of man. Fail not to consult the greatest Astrologist on earth. It costs you but a trifle, and you may never again have so favorable an opportunity. Consultation fee, with likeness and all desired information, $1. Parties living at a distance can consult the Madame by mail with equal safety and satisfaction to themselves, as if in person. A full and explicit chart, written out, with all inquiries answered and likeness enclosed, sent by mail on receipt of price above mentioned. The strictest secrecy will be maintained, and all correspondence returned or destroyed. References of the highest order furnished those desiring them. Write plainly the day of the month and year in which you were born, enclosing a small lock of hair.

THE RELEASE OF MR. DAVIS.

Throughout this community, the intelligence of Mr. Davis' release on bail, communicated by telegraph on yesterday afternoon, was received, so far as we know, with general joy and profound thankfulness.—Throughout the entire South, the information will send a thrill of delight, and we feel sure that it will excite emotions of pleasure in humane and generous bosoms all the country over. For ourselves we confess our inability to give proper utterance to our own great gratification,—gratification so great that we prefer to make the simple announcement, unaccompanied by a single word of reference to the past.

"ABUSES OF POWER."

The National Intelligencer, in an able and out-spoken article on the subject of "abuses of power" by the military commanders in the South, asserts, in effect, that harsh as are the requirements of the Reconstruction Acts of Congress, their letter has been transgressed in many instances, their spirit violated and their exactions needlessly intensified. The Intelligencer, it is well known, always views the situation from a calm and dispassionate stand-point, and is accustomed to regard the political developments of the day through the medium of an enlightened and sagacious conservatism.

There is such a thing as having the political, as well as the natural, sensibilities blunted by heavy impositions and accumulated severities. We hear it said by some, that the people of the South have passed through such ordeals of suffering, and have been so habituated, since the close of the war, to consider all their political muniments and civil rights as held by the precarious tenure of subordination to the will of military power or the caprice of an intolerant party majority, that any new infractions of their constitutional immunities or privileges, any fresh trespass upon the safeguards of liberty, any additional pressure of the heel of arbitrary power, have ceased to excite wonder or animadversion. We have become used, they say, to such things. The raw has been reached long since, and the keenness of the pain has in a measure passed away. Sad and melancholy would it be, that such should be the case,—that a people, who were cradled in liberty, who have been devoted to the forms of law, whose judiciary were models of uprightness and wisdom, and whose statutes were based on the best models, should have reached a pitch, or rather have sunk to a depression, when they cease to feel surprise or express concern at new invasions and encroachments.

Nations have arrived at so forlorn a condition in the past;—there have been cases where the spirit of a people has been ground to the earth, and when they have ceased to feel any interest in governing or being governed,—but that, as yet, is not our fate.—There is a recuperative energy, a proud hopefulness, in the Southern character, that has led our people to look beyond the present gloomy surroundings and to foresee the ultimate return of right reason and magnanimity, and the final triumph of the principles of constitutional freedom. And while they have, accordingly, felt, with all the intense sensitiveness of a law-loving people, the enormities that have been perpetrated in the name of law, they have neither indulged in unmanly despondency or childish murmur. They have been equal to every situation in which they have been placed, and they will continue so to be.

But what we started out to say is, that it would be remarkable if the military Commanders did not occasionally exceed the strict letter or spirit of their duties, under the guidance of laws which leave so much to discretion as the Reconstruction acts of Congress. Military men are not proverbial, in civil matters, for prudence, judgment or acumen. We know that very many of them have a high estimate of their capabilities in these particulars, but still the general experience is as we have stated it.—Taking all these things into consideration, therefore, we do not know but that our people are getting along about as well, under present circumstances, as could possibly have been expected. We know of none of the military Commanders, we think we may say, except Gen. Sheridan, who has apparently wilfully transcended his legitimate duties and sought to make his rule a reign of oppression and a means of gratifying the inclinations of a vindictive nature. Errors of judgment, unwitting excesses of authority, all of them have committed, but, upon the whole, they have done as well as the chart by which they had to steer would admit of. We are decidedly of this opinion with respect to Gen. Sickles.

REPLYING to a Committee of Knight Templars, inviting the President to visit a Masonic celebration at Boston, he replies that he has thus far declined to accept any invitations, because of the incompleteness of the work under the Reconstruction acts. He adds that until the Attorney General's opinion, now in preparation, shall have been submitted and considered, and some general rules in accordance with this opinion shall have been adopted for the guidance of military Commanders, he will be compelled to remain at his post of duty.

IT WILL be seen, by reference to our yesterday afternoon's telegraphic dispatches, that in New Orleans, as well as in Richmond, the efforts of Radical emissaries to stir up strife in our midst are bearing their legitimate fruits.

OUR TELEGRAPHIC dispatches, on yesterday, announced the arrest of one Jedekiah (the genuine puritanical twang) Haywood, of Massachusetts, by the Mayor of Richmond, for incendiary harangues to the colored people of that City. That our readers may see the character of this man's speeches, and the nature of the fire-brands that are being imported into our midst from the North, we make the following extract from a report of the meeting as published in the Richmond papers:

"Haywood, of Massachusetts, spoke next. He said: When I go back to Massachusetts shall I tell the people there that you are determined to ride in the same street cars in which any white man or woman rides?—('Yes!') Shall I tell them that you intend to occupy any boxes or any seats in the theatre for which you pay your money? ('Yes, yes!') Shall I tell them that you will go to any public school where people are taught? ('Yes!') Shall I tell them that you intend to go to any church where the Gospel is—not as Mrs. Partington says—dispensed with? ('Yes, yes!') Shall I tell them that you intend, in whatever manner you may see fit, to have every right that any white citizen of the State of Massachusetts enjoys? ('Yes!') If you want these things and cannot get them of yourselves, the young men of the Old Bay State will help you to get them. They came once and laid for months for you in the Chickahominy Swamps, and they will come again.—(Cheers.) We have paid taxes to make you free, and we will pay more to get you what you want. (Cheers.)

He then went on, as he said, to caution this vast audience. During his visit to Richmond he had discovered bravery among them that was astonishing. But those who might be disposed to be reckless, he would warn that they owed a duty to the brave men who had risked so much for them—(Cheers.) You would not endanger the life of the illustrious Underwood, would you? ("No! No! That we wouldn't"!) Well, then, as soon as he leaves you may have a high carnival for what you please. It is useless for me to advise you as to what to do; for great masses generally do what they have a mind to. (Long and continued cheering.)

Here John A. Fitchett arose and said: "Mr. Speaker, you may tell the people of Massachusetts that the colored people of Richmond are determined to enter any barroom, hotel, theatre, or street car they may wish." ("Yes, we will"; cheers.)

The speaker said that a law would have to be passed for Virginia as had been passed for Massachusetts, compelling hotel proprietors, etc., to allow the colored men equal privileges with the whites. (Loud cheers, and cries of "That's what we want here," and "We are going to have it here, too.")

The military authorities should have promptly arrested this infamous incendiary. The third section of the Reconstruction Act declares it to be the duty of the District Commander "to protect all persons in their rights of person and property, and to punish, or cause to be punished, all disturbers of the peace," &c. The military Commandant of Lynchburg prohibited Mr. H. Rives Pollard from delivering a lecture in that city, on the assumption that it might contain something "rebellious." Now we confess to no partiality, whatever, for Pollard, but that he should be prejudged and have his mouth closed, while such creatures as Hunnicutt and Haywood are allowed to light the flames of strife and civil war in our midst, with impunity, is passing strange, to say the least of it.

THE TRIAL and conviction of Conover, seems to have been only a show and a foil, to save Holt. He was prosecuted for his perjuries by the man who paid him for them, with a seeming of indignation and severity; but results indicate that it was only stage acting, to amuse the public. Meanwhile Conover, instead of being punished according to the sentence, is still in favor and confidence, and is making himself further useful to the good cause. The Washington Union says:

"Par nobile fratrum, Ashley and Conover! Conover, instead of taking up his residence at Albany for ten years, as provided by the Court, remains at the jail in this city, and, as we are told, holds a daily levee with the enemies of the President. It is well known that he receives long and intimate visits from James M Ashley, member of Congress from Ohio, and the leading spirit in the impeachment business, and that since these visits have commenced Conover has been assigned comfortable quarters and abundantly furnished with writing materials. What Ashley says to him, and how far Conover deems it prudent and gentlemanly to take Ashley into his confidence, we cannot tell, but would advise Conover, if he is at all jealous of his good name and reputation, not to become too intimate with Ashley.'

Reports from the counties and registration districts in Virginia, south of the James River, are very gratifying. The feeling in favor of speedy reconstruction is very general, and there is a disposition to accept the negro as an equal citizen without factious and useless opposition. Capitalists and land owners are offering the colored men facilities for cultivating land and advancing their private interests and social condition.—Cincinnati Gazette, (Radical.)

General Howard made a similar declaration in a late speech in Chicago, and claimed that this state of things was due to the legislation of Congress. Such statements only prove that, having accomplished the object of previous misrepresentation and slander, the Radical press and politicians of the North are now ready to do us justice.—There has been no time, since the surrender of Gen. Lee's army, that the feeling in the South has not been in favor of "speedy reconstruction," and that there has not been a disposition and a willingness to afford the "colored men facilities for cultivating land and advancing their private interests and social condition."

SENATOR WILSON declared, in his recent speech at Augusta, that he had made seventeen speeches in the South, and had experienced uniform politeness and courtesy. And yet, in the very same City, a day or two afterwards, a peaceable colored man, who dared to counsel his friends to moderation, was so threatened as to be compelled to ask a guard of police to save him from being mobbed! Which is the party of law and order in the South? Let the foregoing instance, and the Richmond disturbances, answer.

THE RECENT so-called "charge" of that obscene brute Underwood excites the universal indignation of the country. Even the most extreme Radical papers are emphatic in reprobation of it.

FIVE YEARS ago, on the 9th of May just past, Gen. Hunter issued his celebrated emancipation proclamation in Missouri, which was promptly repudiated by President Lincoln, and which brought down upon the unlucky General the denunciation of scores of those very journals which now profess to have been the life-long champions of the black man. As the National Intelligencer observes, Congress could have proclaimed negro suffrage in the South just as well two years ago as last March, but refused; and, as a striking illustration of the temper of the Radical party, when they had the power in Maryland, in 1864, while remodeling the constitution of that State, they refused to confer the ballot on the blacks, and again, when assembled in Convention in Philadelphia in September last, they declined committing themselves to negro suffrage. The negroes may be ignorant, but there are many of them of sufficient intelligence to know, as General Garfield frankly admitted in a speech made last February, that the Radicals have befriended the negro not from sympathy for him or from love of justice, but from interest.—Who in the future will have a greater interest in doing the colored man justice than the white men of the South?

IT IS GIVEN out, unofficially, that Attorney General Stanbery's exposition of the bounds and limits of the late Congressional edicts will be forthcoming the present week. It is daily becoming more necessary, in some quarters. Gen. Sheridan's despotical acts in New Orleans are eclipsed by those of his subaltern, Gen. Griffin, in Texas, whose order, with the comments of the Houston Telegraph thereon, will be found in another column. The interference with the jury law in question is one of the most dangerous as well as arbitrary acts ever perpetrated by a man whose head had been turned by "a little brief authority."

SUPPOSE that the recent disturbances and riotous demonstrations in Richmond had been the work of white men,—what a howl of indignation would have resounded throughout the North! And suppose that Congress was in session—would a Committee of investigation have been raised, as in the case of the Memphis and New Orleans riots?

ADDRESS OF GOVERNOR BROWNLOW TO THE RADICAL DESTRUCTIVES.

KNOXVILLE, TENN., May 8.—Governor Brownlow, through his paper, publishes an address to his party, in lieu of a speech, which he says he is too feeble to make. To the blacks he says that the Radical Legislature enfranchised them, and that the section of the law excluding them from holding office originated with rebels, and that he was personally on the floor of the House working to strike out that odious section. His party, he claims, has restored the State to peace, to the Federal Union, to financial credit; has opened schools and courts, and protected loyal men. The two parties are traitors and Union men, and he warns the former that wherever they inflame the passions of the people he will station State troops, whatever may be the result.

The Knoxville Convention instructs its delegates to support Gen. Cooper for Congress. The race in the convention on the 11th, between Cooper and Maynard, will be close.

Col. John Baxter opened the campaign in East Tennessee for Etheridge, at Cleaveland, on yesterday. The meeting was very large.

THE FIDELITY OF MR. DAVIS'S SERVANTS—Married, on Tuesday night, May 7th, at Fortress Monroe, Carroll Hall, by the Rev. O. S. Barton, Rector of Christ Church, Norfolk, Frederick McGinnis to Ellen Barnes.

The above deserves more than a passing notice. It is not often in these days, that we witness such faithfulness and devotion on the part of servants. Both parties belonged to Mr. Davis's household, and have shared with him and family their long protracted imprisonment. They were his servants in Richmond, and have remained true and devoted to him through good and evil report. When, after the evacuation of Richmond, the family were compelled to move Southward, Ellen could not be persuaded to leave them, but faithfully shared with them the toil and suffering of those fearful days.

When, after Mr. Davis's capture and his removal to the Fortress, his anxious, almost distracted wife was waiting for tidings from him who, by the chances of war had been thus cruelly torn from her side, Frederick, ever faithful and true, sought her, offering his services to go to him and help in ministering to his wants. When told that the slender means of the fallen family would never permit such an expenditure, his services were offered freely and gladly, without reward or remuneration. When at last, arrangements were made and means provided for him and he found himself within the Fortress, a part of his wages were carefully laid aside, and have been regularly sent home to South Carolina to his old mistress, (like many others, impoverished by the war,) who, in his own words, had been as good to him, and whom he loved as a mother. A like faithfulness and liberality must be recorded of Ellen.

Surely such an instance speaks for itself! Who does not feel that the unobtrusive faithfulness and devotion of these good people are a noble tribute to one who will ever be regarded, by all who know him, with peculiar affection, whom his friends admire and cherish for his high integrity and noble bearing in public, and quiet gentleness and refined sympathy in private.—Norfolk Journal.

The grand jury of the United States Court have had under consideration for some days the question of indicting the conductor of the street car who recently ejected a negro from one of the cars. On yesterday, by a very decided vote, it was determined not to indict him.

The question of indicting the newspaper publishers of Richmond has not been, and it is not probable will be, considered by the jury.—Richmond Dispatch.

FULL 1,000 of the United States troops sent into Texas to preserve order after the surrender of General Lee received their discharges and concluded to remain. The Galveston News has never known one of them to have been proscribed or molested for his political sentiments or for having served in the Union army.

The Board of Education of Troy, N. Y., on Tuesday evening, by a vote of 7 to 9, refused to recind the rule denying to colored children the right to admission to the High School.

A man once standing in a desert picked up a jewel and threw it away, saying, "Pshaw, 'tis only a diamond. I thought and hoped it was a grain of corn."

For the Sentinel.

THE FAYETTEVILLE MAIL.

Editors of the Sentinel: Gentlemen—We earnestly regret to be constrained to present the matter of the failure of the Fayetteville mail in its true light, and to be obliged to seek, thus publicly, the award of that justice, which certain individuals at that place, who have endeavored to injure us, seem determined to withhold against better light and knowledge.

All are familiar with the facts connected with the failure of that mail.

Now whose duty, we ask, was it to see to and endeavor to remedy it? The regulations of the Post Office Department say distinctly, in the following words, to-wit:

"When any contractor fails to commence the service stipulated in his contract or abandons the same, it is the duty of the Postmasters at the ends of the route to report the fact to the contract office and to furnish the name of a person who will enter into contract for the lowest price for the residue of the term." [See regulations, chap. 36, sec. 406, of Postal Laws and regulations. Edition 1866.]

Well, here was a route abandoned, and what action did the Postmaster at Raleigh take? Why, he immediately went diligently to work, saw that the fact was communicated by telegraph to the contractor at Salem, Mr. Clemmons, who knew nothing of it, reported the facts to the military Headquarters at Raleigh, in the hope that they could act in the matter, reported the failure at once to the contract office at Washington, sought out Mr. Clemmons immediately upon his arrival in Raleigh, urged upon him earnestly the immediate reestablishment of the mail—as we had previously again and again urged Mr. Bridgers, the partner of Edwards,—and when they, Clemmons and Bridgers, both declined to do anything in the matter, the former from inability upon so sudden an emergency, to prepare himself for the duty, the latter from downright indisposition to do anything, we then went, with the zealous co-operation of Dr. Jobe, the special mail agent for the State, to find some one who would do the service. The Postmaster took it upon himself to offer compensation pro rata with the contract for even a tri-weekly service of the mail. But we could find no one willing to undertake it. The time (two months) was too short—no one was willing to prepare himself for the service in anyway, even on horseback—for three days—or even for one day per week—for so short a period.

And what, pray, during all this time, was the Postmaster at Fayetteville doing?—What the veracious proprietor of the Presbyterian and the other complaining men at that place, the second city in commercial importance in North Carolina and so deeply interested in that mail; what were they doing? Aye, what? The Presbyterian, instead of attempting to help itself or lend its aid and assistance in any way, seems to have been diligently accumulating a mass of misrepresentations and blunders, for its own and the columns of other papers. The Postmaster doing anything else but consulting the Postal laws and regulations to ascertain his duty and the proper course of action under the circumstances, but all looking to Raleigh to get them out of the difficulty. To Raleigh! A place, we suppose, in the estimation of the Presbyterian, nowhere in "commercial importance."

Listen to the asseverations of the pious proprietor of that paper: "And the attentive Postmaster of that place (Raleigh) gave him (the carrier who had brought up the mail from Fayetteville) a few letters and old papers and sent him back." Whereas, the fact is, that every letter for Fayetteville and as many papers, all of the latest dates, as he could carry, were given him to take back, he complaining at the time that his load was too heavy.

Again, says the Presbyterian: "The law requires him, (meaning the Postmaster at Raleigh) whenever the contractor fails to carry the mail, &c., to send it by some one else, charge it to the contractor and report him to the Department." We have given the law verbatim above,—see the prevarication of this proprietor of the Presbyterian. He even quotes the law falsely to serve his malevolent purpose.

Then again to show the spirit and intent of the proprietor, he goes on to say "If rumors about this matter are correct," &c., &c., and then goes on to charge, by unmistakable innuendo, the contractor with the most false and dishonorable conduct. Rumor! Pray what has a newspaper, of the pious pretensions of the Presbyterian, to do with rumors that affect the character and standing of gentlemen? For a paper bearing the motto and pretending to what the Presbyterian does, to seize with avidity upon rumor and give circulation to it, to the injury of the character and reputation of one who stands at least as high in the estimation of those who know him, as the proprietor of the Presbyterian does! Shame, shame!—"Prove all things," observe your motto and practice it. Newspapers, whatever may be their names or denominations, are prostituted to the vilest and worst of purposes, when they thus indulge and outrage decency. True Presbyterianism repudiates, with loathing and disgust, all such low and contemptible resorts. We are not Mr. Clemmon's protector. He is capable of taking care of himself. We allude to this for the purpose of showing the spirit and temper of the proprietor of the Presbyterian.

We repeat here our sincere regret at being constrained to resort to this course in defence of ourself from the totally unfounded and inexcusable attack upon us by the Presbyterian. Had he shown a degree of magnanimity equal to the public retraction of it, as he was requested, and advised to do by a mutual friend, we should have rested satisfied and remained silent, but the way in which he has chosen to meet that appeal leaves us no alternative. His magnanimity! pshaw.

No Post-office in the State, except our own, has had more of our attention and care, than that at Fayetteville.—We have administered to its wants with promptness and care, whenever it was in our power, and done so with pleasure—no Postmaster in the service has had more of our regard and kind feelings, than the one at Fayetteville, and we gave credit to no one for a more careful and correct administration of his office, and it is with pain that we are constrained to animadvert upon it in this instance. It shall not however affect in the least our care for and attention to the postal interests of Fayetteville—we well know that there are not wanting there men enough to discern the right in this matter and to do us justice, the Presbyterian notwithstanding—and foremost amongst them, if we have rightly estimated him, will be found the Postmaster there.

Respectfully Yours,

POSTMASTER,
Raleigh.

RADICALISM IN EAST TENNESSEE.—The radical spirit in East Tennessee is forcibly illustrated by the following notification from a Captain of Brownlow's militia, who also edits a paper:

GRAND PRESENTATION CONCERT
IN AID OF THE
SOUTHERN ORPHAN
ASSOCIATION,
INCORPORATED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF VIRGINIA,
Jan. 30th. 1867.
To be Given at Baltimore, June 17th, 1867.

TICKETS ONE DOLLAR EACH, TO BE HAD of JOHN BRAGG, Agent, at Southern Express Office, Raleigh, N. C.
Owing to recent troubles, the Managers have issued the following Card to which the attention of the Public is called:
OFFICE PRESENTATION CONCERT,
Baltimore, April 13, 1867.
MESSRS. EDITORS.—Our attention has been called to extracts in Southern papers reflecting upon the management of the Presentation Concert in aid of the Southern Orphan Association, and in answer to the statements and assertions contained in such extracts we wish to lay the whole matter before the people, that they may judge from the actions of our accusers the motives by which they are governed. We call attention to the facts contained in the following card, and request the public to bear in mind that the parties mentioned were only members invested with no authority to act in any official capacity whatever. The power they sought to usurp would give them full control of the books and funds, by which they could shape the first to suit them, and withdraw the latter from the bank, where it is now, subject to the order of the Association:
[From the Baltimore Gazette April 11.]
TO THE PUBLIC.
The Southern Orphan Association being liable to misrepresentation in consequence of the late arrest of some of its members on charges preferred by Mr. A. G. Kimberly, we beg leave to present the following statements in regard to the Association and its accusers:
At the inception of the Society the ladies connected with its origin, in view of difficulties that might arise in procuring a charter, determined to admit as members such gentlemen as were supposed to be proper to advise and assist them. Some of these gentlemen apparently worked for the sole benefit of the Association until the Charitable Concert was proposed. After that their actions showed but too plainly that they desired to obtain control of the Association.
At a meeting of the Trustees upon the 9th. of March a constitution, drawn up by Messrs. Kimberly and Hawkins, investing them with full power and authority to handle the funds of the Association and to examine its books, was proposed by Mr. Kimberly, and upon a vote being taken, it was laid aside. The ladies, with some exceptions, rejected it and the President and Treasurer, not recognizing the legality of the document, refused to vote. In this manner it was laid over. Notwithstanding this, the parties resolved themselves into committees and set to work.
On the 3d. of April a committee, consisting of Messrs. Kimberly and Bostock, under this so called constitution, came to our office and demanded the books. The President being present, stated that having refused to accept the constitution, she would not recognise the committee. On the 4th. Mr. Kimberly called, with two gentlemen, and again demanded the books, and was again refused.
On the 5th. by request of Messrs. Kimberly, Hawkins and Bostock, we, with two witnesses, attended an interview with them at Barnum's Hotel. Mr. Hawkins stated that he had that morning received a letter from General Trimble, authorizing him to prosecute us for having opened one of the General's letters, which he intended to do to the full extent of the law if we did not give up the books. As the officers should decide this, we told him that he would be answered next day. On that evening the officers and ourselves were arrested on a warrant issued by Mr. Kimberly, and released on bail. The next evening Mr. Hawkins issued a warrant for the arrest of our book keeper, Mr. Schiers, on the charge of having opened General Trimble's letter. As the charge was false, Mr. Schiers was dismissed. We see from this morning's "Sun" that these parties "announce their unqualified repudiation of the project," etc., which will be taken for what it is worth, when it will be shown that they repudiated, etc., because they lost their large commissions in the rejections of their farms and houses by the Society.
The offices and rank they append to their signatures are of their own creation, as the Society wishes the public to understand that it does not recognize the name and office of "Finance Committee" as ever having been created by said society.
We here leave the public to determine the motives of our accusers, for, to our mind, a simple narration of the above facts is sufficient to show that the Association and ourselves are attacked because we would not suit the purposes of Messrs. Hawkins, Bostock and Kimberly.
L. T. PALMER & CO.
In consequence of the persecution arising from our late connection with these persons, we are compelled to postpone the GRAND CHARITABLE PRESENTATION CONCERT to the SEVENTEENTH DAY OF JUNE, 1867. This will give us ample time to dispose of all the tickets, and it will afford the public an opportunity to investigate the facts which we have published, thus gaining that confidence which is necessary to ensure the success of every public measure.
We do not wish these statements to be taken unsubstantiated, as we cordially invite an investigation of the enterprize. The grand jury of this city presented us, and we hoped that they would go further and indict us, for we wished to prove to the world our honesty and disinterestedness in this measure, which could not be better done than in an investigation by the grand inquest.
It now remains with the public whether the "Home and School" shall be built. Whether the poor, fatherless children of the South, whose parents' blood was shed in defence of Southern homes, shall be deprived of the blessings which this enterprise seeks to obtain for them. Must we appeal in vain? No, it shall not be said that the Southern people were so ungenerous as to condemn those who are seeking to benefit the children of the soldiers who died for them, upon the evidence of men who, when they saw their own mercenary aims frustrated, sought to cover their guilt by bringing charges on us. Charges which, in the only trial that was allowed us, were proved to be as false as perjury could make them.
L. T. PALMER & CO.
Mrs. J. L. HAMMOND, President, Mrs. E. A. T. MEARES, Treasurer, Mrs. McCUBBIN and Mrs. SCHIERS, Trustees of the Southern Orphan Association, have also published a card. The following are extracts:
"We invite an examination of our books and the funds now accumulating in bank subject to the order of the Association, for the purpose of erecting the home and school for the orphans of the "Confederate dead" in the city of Richmond, Virginia. Nothing that we can say will testify more accurately the correctness of our plans than an investigation of our books and funds, and it was because we, as custodians of these treasures, would not surrender them to dishonest men, that we are now subject to their persecutions and abuses.
We have seen the horrors and devastation of the late war, and know the immense amount of suffering occasioned by it. Homes were rendered cheerless by the loss of its head, who fell fighting for the homes of the South, and it was our sympathy for the poor and friendless orphans of the South that caused us to enter into the resolution of securing for them a home and providing an education, as may render them hereafter good and useful citizens of a free and happy land.
We confess, however, that if we could have looked through the future and seen the trials and persecutions to which we are subjected, we should have never attempted to begin so thankless a work. But now, having embarked in it, our reputation is at stake, and we must build the Home and School; therefore we call upon all good people to assist us toward the completion of our work by discrediting the assertions made by our enemies. And we ask—nay, we demand—that those papers whose opinions were founded upon the acts of our employees, should give to the public our statements, and modify their assertions so as to be in strict accordance with the facts.
Not long since, Messrs. L. T. Palmer & Co. published a card which, as we approved it then, we will officially endorse it now, that the information contained therein may go forth to the public with every guarantee for its truthfulness.
In consequence of the delay occasioned by the conduct of the persons above alluded to, we have been compelled to inform our managers to postpone the Concert until the 17th. day of June, 1867, that we may be able to begin the building as soon as our Concert business shall end."

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

TO ADVERTISERS.—The public will find the Sentinel one of the best mediums of advertising in the State. Its circulation covers a larger area, perhaps, than any other paper.

THE MANY friends of the Senior Editor of this paper will be gratified to learn that he continues to improve in health, and that there is every reason to hope that, after some days of necessary repose, he will be able to resume his duties.

Flour, Meal, &c.: Douglass Bell, Market Square,

MAYOR'S COURT.—Julia Griffin, colored, charged with a misdemeanor, was returned to the County Court.

Corporal Monks, Co. A., 5th. Cavalry, F. P. Brown, Co. A, 5th. Cavalry, J. Donavan, Co. A, 5th. Cav., W. Emmett, Co. A, 5th. Cav., Sergt.-Major Harsdorf, 8th. Infantry, and P. Hicks, colored, Band 40th. Regiment Infantry, U. S. Troops, were arrested and committed to the Guard House for being in the City without passes, and turned over to the Military authorities.

R. Ruth, C. Johnson, A. McGuire, M. Thompson, W. Gooch, J. Sugg, Jr., J. Putney, whites, T. Brown, H. Brown, and D. Holland, colored, were lodged in the Guard House for disorderly conduct on the streets. Ruth, Johnson and Sugg remained in the Guard House 24 hours. McGuire, Thompson, Gooch, Putney, T. Brown, H. Brown and Holland each paid a fine of $2.

BLAIR AND STRAWBERRIES.—We dined with our friend Blair, of the Yarbrough, on yesterday. "Strawberries smothered in crame" was the dessert, and everything that was nice in itself and elegant in cuisine as preliminaries thereto. We hazard nothing in saying that we have rarely set down to a more complete dinner, even on the most elaborate occasions, and yet it was but a specimen of what "mine host" of the Yarbrough gives his guests every day. It is the concurrent testimony of the travelling public, that it is the best Hotel between New York and New Orleans.

MR. MILLER, our City Postmaster, asks the use of our columns to vindicate himself against the censure that has been cast upon him by the Presbyterian, of Fayetteville, and in a communication from that place which we admitted into the Sentinel. We comply with the request, as a matter of justice, though we regret that the matter in controversy should have assumed so acrimonious a complexion. We have heretofore expressed our conviction that Mr. Miller was not to blame in the premises, while we feel equally confident that none of our Fayetteville friends would do that gentleman an intentional injustice.

IT HAS been erroneously stated in the papers of the State, that Bishop Pierce's Commencement Sermon at Trinity College would be delivered on the 19th of June. It will be delivered on the 12th.

GEN. SICKLES' REGISTRATION ORDER.—We re-publish, on our first page, this morning, and shall keep standing, for several days, for general information, this important order. There were a few inaccuracies in the order as originally published and furnished by telegraph.

THOSE OF our readers who lack a growth of hair upon the face, or those whose hair is falling out, or have become bald, would do well to try "Dr. Sevigne's Restaurateur Capillaire." This preparation has been used by thousands in this country and Europe, with the most gratifying results. Testimonials of the most flattering character have been received from the most wealthy and influential citizens of the country, and will be sent free to any one, on application, by Messrs. Berger, Shutts & Co., Chemists, of Troy, N. Y., the only agents in America for the sale of the same. Read their advertisement in this paper.

THE KENTUCKY ELECTION.—The Louisville Journal of Tuesday states that from their private despatches received, they are convinced that the Democratic majority in the State is upwards of 35,000.

About seventy Cherokee Indians, from North Carolina, recently arrived at Fort Smith by steamer. They came as emigrants to the Cherokee Nation, where they intend settling. They report about 2,000 more in that State, who intend emigrating to the Cherokee country the coming fall.

ROCKY MOUNT FACTORY.—A correspondent of the Norfolk Journal gives the following interesting account of this extensive factory, owned by that enterprising gentleman, W. S. Battle, Esq. If we are not mistaken, our public spirited townsman, Gen. W. R. Cox, is also interested as a partner in the establishment. After alluding to its destruction by a Federal raiding party in 1863, the writer says:

"Mr Battle has rebuilt his factory, also his grist and saw mills. His mills are in running condition, but his factory has not commenced operations yet. He is putting in the last of his machinery to-day, and will probably commence on Monday next. The manner in which these mills are rebuilt reflects the highest credit on his spirit and intelligence. Everything about these establishments is on the best scale. All the buildings are first class, and the machinery comprises all the recent improvements. He offers every encouragement to mechanics of all kinds to settle in his neighborhood, and, I have no doubt, will live to see his mills and factory the centre of a thriving town.

I have seldom seen a handsomer location. The land on each side of the Falls is bold, and shaded by a splendid growth of oaks. The River makes its way over a bed of rocks, which rise from its surface to the height of 10, 15, or 20 feet in some places, and the continual roar of the falls is loud enough to drown the clatter of the mills.—It looks somewhat like the James above Richmond, about the water-works, only it is not so wide."

By the way, we have heard nothing, of late, about the Raleigh Factory project which was inaugurated under such flattering auspices. We trust that the enterprise is not to be allowed to sleep.

[From the Houston Telegraph.]

EX-CONFEDERATES FORBIDDEN, BY ORDER OF GEN. GRIFFIN, TO SERVE ON JURIES IN TEXAS.

We publish below a very important order of General Charles Griffin, commanding in this State. It will be seen that its object and effect is, to deprive all the citizens of the State who ever gave any support to the Confederate cause from serving on juries; and at the same time to limit our jurors to the blacks and the few white men who can take the test-oath. This order, taken in connection with the manner in which registration is carried out in New Orleans, confirms the fears entertained by many, that in Texas and Louisiana we are destined to have the reconstruction law interpreted and administered in the most severe and humiliating manner.

The truth is, trial by jury in this State, either in civil or criminal cases, is now in the hands of the blacks almost entirely. There are hardly enough white men in the State who can honestly take the test-oath to make a grand jury for a Circuit Court. More than half the blacks cannot honestly take it.—Not only will most of our jurymen be blacks, but many of the blacks themselves will be shut out.

This is a sweeping and fearful order, when interpreted in the light of the above facts, and when it is remembered how illy prepared are our newly enfranchised colored people, as a mass, to have sole administration of that sacred right—the protection of the life, liberty and property of the citizen—the right of trial by jury.

The best lawyers in the land have analyzed the civil rights bill, the military government bill, and the supplemental bill, and not one whom we have heard has found in them authority for such an order as this.—It is full of mischief and danger:

HEADQUARTERS DISTRICT OF TEXAS,
GALVESTON, Texas, April 27, 1867.
[Circular No. 13.]

The attention of the Commanding General of the District having been directed to the fact that persons disqualified by law are drawn to serve as jurors in the civil courts of the State of Texas, it is hereby ordered that hereafter no person shall be held eligible to serve or to be sworn in as jurymen until he shall have taken the following oath:

I, ——— do solemnly swear that I have never voluntarily borne arms against the United States since I have been a citizen thereof, that I have voluntarily given no aid, countenance, counsel or encouragement to persons engaged in armed hostility thereto; that I have never sought nor accepted nor attempted to exercise the functions of any office whatever, under any authority or pretended authority in hostility to the United States; that I have not yielded a voluntary support to any pretended government, authority, power or constitution within the United States, hostile or inimical thereto.—And I do further swear that, to the best of my knowledge and ability, I will support and defend the Constitution of the United States, against all enemies, foreign and domestic; that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the same; that I take this obligation freely, without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion; and that I will well and faithfully discharge the duties of the office on which I am about to enter, so help me God.

To prevent the exclusion of loyal citizens from the jury box, on account of race or color, and for the guidance of officials authorized to impanel juries in the State of Texas, the following section of the Civil Rights bill is published:

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That any person who, under color of any law, statute, ordinance, regulation, or custom, shall subject, or cause to be subjected, any inhabitant of any State or Territory to the deprivation of any right secured or protected by this act, or to different punishment, pains or penalties, on account of such person having at any time been held in a condition of slavery or involuntary servitude, except as a punishment for crime whereof the party shall have been duly convicted, or by reason of his color or race, than is prescribed for the punishment of white persons, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, on conviction, shall be punished by fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or imprisoned not exceeding one year, or both, in the discretion of the court.

By command of Brevet Major Gen. GRIFFIN.

A. H. M. TAYLOR, 2d. Lt. 17th. U. S. Infantry, A. A. A. G.

Official: A. S. M. Sayer, Acting Assistant Adjutant General.

The Commissioner of the General Land Offices has decided that a party taking possession of public lands under the pre-emption law, by his actual settlement, acquires a legal inceptive right which he has the power to consummate upon continuous settlement long enough to establish his bona fide claim, and get complete title. Under these circumstances it is his duty to guard the premises from timber spoliaters, and to this end has his legal remedy under local laws against a trespass, which he should invoke for his protection.

"The man that does not understand that this State is to remain under the control of its friends, at any cost or sacrifice, is certainly too far behind the times to make a safe and successful legislator. The radicals will rule this State, peaceably if they can, forcibly if they must."

ARREST FOR FRAUD.

BROOKLYN, May 13.

Thos. Halsey, a Revenue collector, was arrested to-day for defrauding the government. He was bailed for $15,000.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, May 13.

The Georgia injunction bill was dismissed to-day, for want of jurisdiction. The Mississippi bill was so amended as to cover the Arkansas Treasury case. It will probably be argued on Friday.

The Internal Revenue receipts, to-day, are $718-000.

HON. JEFFERSON DAVIS.

RICHMOND, May 13.

It was decided to-day, by those having in charge Hon. Jefferson Davis, that he should be conveyed to the Court room as privately as possible. In the hack with him were Gen. Burton, Dr. Cooper and Maj. McElroth; in the other was Capt. Millard, who was a Union officer during the war, and is now one of the courteous proprietors of the Spottswood House, and Dr. McGill and Rev. Dr. Minnegerode. On their return to the hotel, Rev. Dr. Minnegerode, in the company of Mr. Davis and his family and a few personal friends, offered up a prayer in thanksgiving for the relief of his friend, and his restoration to the bosom of his family, and for His protection.

A large number of visitors were afterwards received by him.

The following telegram was received by Judge Underwood, in the Court room, to-day, a short time before he admitted Mr. Davis to bail:

"WASHINGTON, May 13.

Beware of Greely. Remember Libby prison, Andersonville and Belle Isle. Fifty millions are looking on, and expect you to do your duty.—While three hundred thousand patriot graves cry aloud for revenge. YOUR FRIEND."

On his release Mr. Davis telegraphed his brother Joseph C. Davis, in Mississippi the fact, and informed him that he would write from New York.

Tuesday Afternoon Dispatches.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, May 14.

A petition of Irish citizens will be presented to the Cabinet to-day by the President, requesting the Government's intercession in behalf of Fenians who claim citizenship.

Considerable interest is attached to the amended Mississippi bill, and strong hopes are entertained that the Supreme Court will take steps restraining Gen. Ord from measures which will expose the State property to waste. It is understood that the question will not be argued further—the whole ground having been covered by previous debate. That the amended bill has weight, is inferred from the fact that it was not decided on yesterday.

THE FRONNTIER.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 14.

It is reported that a company of United States troops have been defeated by the Indians and forty killed, in Arizona, and a train of seventy mules, loaded with goods, captured.

MARKETS.

NEW YORK, May 14.

Cotton more steady. Middling uplands 28. Gold $1,36¼.

LIVERPOOL, May 14, 2 P. M.

Cotton quite brisk. The sales will largely exceed the noon estimates, and perhaps reach 15,000 bales. Uplands 11¼. Orleans 11½.

LABOR AND BREAD.—Bread is now as high, if not higher, in this country than ever known before. In 1816, when there were short crops both in the United States and Europe, flour sold at $15 per barrel, and Indian corn at $3 per bushel, the currency then being specie. Now good flour commands from $15 to $19 per barrel, and Indian corn, we believe, is as high as in 1816. The procuring of bread, with all other supplies, at prevailing rates, requires means which the operatives in cities, towns and villages feel with peculiar severity, and having to provide them altogether from the wages of their labor. The inflated and depreciated currency of the country is one of the chief reasons for all this, and back of that lies those measures of political policy which have kept the country in that unhappy and uncertain condition which militates against industry and discourages confidence and enterprise, especially in the naturally rich sections of the South. The most remarkable spectacle is presented of wheat being imported from Liverpool to New York, and it is stated that with the opening of the canals the still more strange spectacle will be presented of shipments of wheat from New York to Rochester and Oswego. Everybody must pray that the crops now planted will yield a good harvest.—N. Y. Evening Express.

Garrison, the abolitionist, has gone to Europe, and his friends have presented him with thirty thousand dollars; which sum will possibly be increased to fifty thousand.

The Supreme Court of Ohio has decided that a temporary closing of the polls on election day for dinner or any other purpose is a violation of law, and vitiates the election.

John Minor Botts was excused from serving on the Grand Jury at Richmond on account of illness, resulting, it is supposed, from Underwood's charge.

The "rebel" General L. E. Ward, of Texas, now lives in Middletown, Ct., and is working at his trade, that of a brick mason.

KNOW THY DESTINY.

MADAME E. F. THORNTON, the great English Astrologist, Clairvoyant, and Psychometrician, who has astonished the scientific classes of the Old World, has now located herself at Hudson, N. Y. Madame Thornton possesses such wonderful powers of second sight, as to enable her to impart knowledge of the greatest importance to the single or married of either sex. While in a state of trance, she delineates the very features of the person you are to marry, and by the aid of an instrument of intense power, known as the Psychomotrope, guarantees to produce a life-like picture of the future husband or wife of the applicant, together with date of marriage, position in life, leading traits of character, &c. This is no humbug, as thousands of testimonials can assert. She will send when desired a certified certificate, or written guarantee, that the picture is what it purports to be. By enclosing a small lock of hair and stating place of birth, age, disposition and complexion, and enclosing fifty cents and stamped envelope addressed to yourself, you will receive the picture and desired information by return mail. FIRST CLASS PROPERTY situated in the center of the business portion of Greensboro, N. C., is offered for rent or lease.
FOR RENT.

THAT LARGE, COMMODIOUS, AND WELL known Hotel,

"THE METROPOLITAN"

Its advantages are many; the outhouses and improvements are in fine condition, and of modern construction. Greensboro is a point at which a well conducted Hotel cannot fail to pay an active manager very handsomely; being at the terminus of the Richmond, Danville and Piedmont Rail Road, about the middle of the N. C. Central Rail Road, in the very centre of the Mining District of N. C.; at a point always remarkable for its flourishing schools and female colleges, and well known as a summer resort, on account of its healthy atmosphere.

The proprietors would prefer renting to some party, who have had experience in conducting a first-class hotel, and to such the terms would be most liberal; at any rate they desire an active and energetic man. The Metropolitan Property being the only Hotel in the central part of town, makes it most desirable, and a competent manager would enjoy a monopoly.

FERTILIZERS
FOR SPRING CROPS.
WE beg to inform the trade and planters of North Carolina and Virginia, that we are prepared to furnish them with the most approved FERTILIZERS, on the most accommodating terms. We will have a stock of genuine PERUVIAN GUANO, purchased direct from the Agent of the Peruvian Government.
We have now in store, for immediate delivery, 325 tons BRADLEY'S SUPER PHOSPHATE OF LIME, which won for itself such an enviable reputation in the Cotton and Tobacco counties of North Carolina and Virginia, last season, proving itself equal, and in many important respects, superior to the Peruvian Guano. We give an analysis of it as ascertained by Dr. Hayes, one of the most eminent Chemists in the country:

| 100 PARTS CONSIST OF | |
| Moisture | 5.35 |
| Prepared animal matter, salts of Ammonia, fatty substances and Humus | 38.50 |
| Bone Phosphates of Lime, Magnesia and Iron | 36.80 |
| (Soluble Phosphates of do. 16 6-10.) | |
| Sulphate of Lime | 16.59 |
| Salts | 20 |
| Insoluble | 2.60 |
| | 99.90 |

The animal matter afforded 4 2-10 parts of Ammonia when it was decomposed, and, as will be seen, nearly one-half of the Bone Phosphate is soluble.
After many analyses of your Super-Phosphate of Lime, made during the last few months, I have found your standard of quality full equal to that of any you have ever sold in former years; and I am satisfied that you include the correct principles in the manufacture. Respectfully,
A. A. HAYES, M. D., State Assayer.

THE SENTINEL.

TUESDAY, MAY 14, 1867.

FAIR TO ME.

I know you are getting old, love;
Your form is shrunken and bent;
I know that the curls of gold, love,
With silvery threads are blent.
Yet you're young and handsome to me, love,
Rosy, and winning, and fair,
For I shut my eyes, and I see, love,
Back through the years of care.

I see the form of my bride, love,
Dressed in her raiment of white,
Standing, as close by my side, love,
She stood on our wedding night.
The eyes looked into my own, love,
Their azure dimmed with a tear;
And I saw but that face alone, love,
Of all who were standing near.

The eyes are no longer bright, love,
The cheeks are no longer red;
The form is shrunken and slight, love,
And grey hairs cover the head.
But the hand that I used to clasp, love,
Browned with exposure and care,
I hold in as warm a grasp, love,
As when it was dimpled and fair.

The smile is the smile of youth, love,
The voice is the same that said,
"I'll love thee forever more love,
Till beauty and love are dead."
And that beauty will never die, love,
Eternal its life will be;
And so, as the years go by, love,
You'll always be fair to me.

SAD DEATH OF TWO CHILDREN.

The Austin (Texas) Gazette gives the following account of the death of two children who had become lost in the woods. They were twins—a brother and sister—four years old, named Dunbar, residing in Limestone County:

The day was mild and pleasant, and they had been playing between the house and the spring not far distant, where their mother was engaged in some household duty. How the little innocents were tempted into the forest depths is not known, but darkness came on, and the children were missed and did not return. The country is sparsely settled and no neighbors could be called on to assist in the search until morning. Then the alarm was given, and numbers joined in the vain effort to find some trace of the lost ones. This was continued until the evening of the third day (the searchers then numbering nearly one hundred) when they were discovered in a thicket, about two miles distant from the house, lying side by side, dead. They were the nephew and niece of Capt. Cane, of Dallas, the Governor's private secretary, and he has read us a portion of the letter from his sister, the unfortunate mother, which has sensibly affected us, and from which we have gathered some of the additional details of this melancholy affair, given above. She mentions another fact, which, simple as it is, touched our heart to the core. The shoes and stockings of the little darlings had been taken off and were found near them. The explanation of this to our mind is plain.—When night came on there was a sudden change in the weather peculiar to this region, called a wet norther. The effect of the cold on the human system is well known.—The children became more drowsy as the piercing wind chilled through their tender bodies, until they could resist the influence no longer, and then, in a half unconscious state, thinking they were home, they pulled off their shoes and stockings, and, as it seemed to them, went to bed. And so, locked in each other's arms, they fell asleep to wake in heaven.

INTERESTING INCIDENT.—A gentleman who was on his way Sunday evening last to visit the grave of a younger brother, who died in the Confederate service, discovered just as he reached the gate of the cemetery three former servants of the family approaching the grave with flowers and evergreens in their hands. Keeping out of their view, he watched them until they reached the grave, when one of them climbed over the iron railing, took the flowers and evergreens from his companions and laid them tenderly on the grave of his former young master.—Lynchburg Virginian.

A friend in the country apologized to Foote, the comic actor, for not keeping an appointment, by exclaiming that he had been at the funeral of a deceased attorney of his acquaintance. "What," says Foote, "do you bury attorneys down here?" "Why certainly," said his friend; "When an attorney is dead," replied Foote with great solemnity, "we lay him out, and leave the body all alone by itself in a room, with the door locked and the window wide open; and when we go in the morning he is always gone." "Who carries him away?" "Don't know; but there is invariably a strong smell of brimstone in the room."

Have you any lucubrating drops for a bronchial deficiency?" said Mrs. Partington to Dr. Whitington at the corner.

"Is your cold deep-seated?" said the doctor blandly.

"I don't know how deep it is," she said, with a bark like an Esquimaux dog, "but it is loud enough. What a time for colds this is to be sure; I declare I am completely exaggerated with my cough."

"You need an expectorant," said the Doctor.

"I expect so," replied she, "but whether it will do any good or not must depend upon how it affects me, but I will take a box of atrocious lozenges, anyhow, which I have heard of as malifluous."

Ike spent his time in playing with the dumb-bell, and the old lady asked the Doctor to excuse the liberty he took, because the lad was given to jimelastics.

An extravagant fellow who had borrowed money of a Jew, kept promising and postponing the payment till the Jew lost patience. "Vonce for all, fen will you pay me?" said the enraged Israelite. "On the day of judgment," said the other. "Von't do! dat vill be too busy a day," said the Hebrew. "Then let it be the day after," said the other.

The motto of a new Virginia paper is "Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty—the price of the Expositor is three dollars a year."

Rize arly, work hard and late, live on what you can't sell, give nothing awa, and if yu don't die ritch, and go to the devil, yu may sue me for damages.—Josh Billings.

"Tommy, my son," said a fond mother, do you say your prayers night and morning?" "Yes, that is, nights; but any smart boy can take care of himself in the daytime."

At a negro ball, in lieu of "not tranferable," on the tickets, a notice was posted over the door, "No gentleman admitted unless he comes hisself."

Why do girls kiss each other? Because they wish to do unto each other as they would men should do unto them.

Mrs. Partington says that when she was young, "gals were innocent unconfiscated creatures."

A young lady must make a hit if she dislikes to be a miss.—Prentice.

Congressional Reconstruction Acts.

For the information of our readers we republish as follows the late reconstruction act of Congress, known as the Sherman-Shellabarger bill. We shall add to it the Howard Amendment, Test Oath and the Supplementary act, all of which will be kept standing until the necessary information they contain shall be generally and fully understood.

THE RECONSTRUCTION ACT.

[Passed over the President's Veto, March 2d, 1867.]

WHEREAS, no legal State governments or adequate protection for life or property now exists in the rebel States of Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Mississippi, Alabama, Louisiana, Florida, Texas, and Arkansas; and whereas it is necessary that peace and good order should be enforced in said States until loyal and Republican State Governments can be legally established: Therefore.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That said rebel States shall be divided into military districts and made subject to the military authority of the United States, as hereinafter prescribed, and for that purpose Virginia shall constitute the first district; North Carolina and South Carolina the second district; Georgia, Alabama and Florida the third district; Mississippi and Arkansas the fourth district; and Louisiana and Texas the fifth district.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the President to assign to the command of each of said districts an officer of the army, not below the rank of Brigadier general, and to detail a sufficient military force to enable such officer to perform his duties and enforce his authority within the district to which he is assigned.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of each officer assigned as aforesaid to protect all persons in their rights of person and property, to suppress insurrection, disorder and violence, and to punish or cause to be punished all disturbers of the public peace and criminals, and to this end he may allow local civil tribunals to take jurisdiction of and to try offenders, or, when in his judgement it may be necessary for the trial of offenders, he shall have power to organize military commissions or tribunals for that purpose, and all interference, under color of State authority, with the exercise of military authority under this act shall be null and void.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That all persons put under military arrest by virtue of this act shall be tried without unnecessary delay, and no cruel or unusual punishment shall be inflicted; and no sentence of any military commission or tribunal hereby authorized affecting the life or liberty of any person, shall be executed until it is approved by the officer in command of the district, and the laws and regulations for the government of the army shall not be affected by this act, except in so far as they conflict with its provisions. Provided, That no sentence of death, under the provisions of this act, shall be carried into effect without the approval of the President.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That when the people of any one of said rebel States shall have formed a constitution of government in conformity with the Constitution of the United States in all respects, framed by a convention of delegates elected by the male citizens of said State, twenty one years old and upwards, of whatever race, color or previous condition, who have been resident in said State for one year previous to the day of such election, except such as may be disfranchised for participation in the rebellion, or for felony at common law; and when such constitution shall provide that the elective franchise shall be enjoyed by all such persons as have the qualifications herein stated for electors of delegates; and when such constitution shall be ratified by a majority of the persons voting on the question of ratification, who are qualified as electors for delegates; and when such Constitution shall be ratified by a majority of the persons voting on the question of ratification, who are qualified as electors for delegates; and when such constitution shall have been submitted to Congress for examination and approval, and Congress shall have approved the same; and when the said State, by a vote of its legislature, elected under said constitution, shall have adopted the amendment to the constitution of the United States, proposed by the Thirty-ninth Congress, and known as article fourteen; and when said article shall have become a part of the constitution of the United States, said State shall be declared entitled to representation in Congress, and Senators and Representatives shall be admitted therefrom, on their taking the oath prescribed by law; and then and thereafter the preceding sections of this act shall be inoperative in said State. Provided, That no person excluded from the privilege of holding office by said amendment to the constitution of the United States shall be eligible to election as a member of the convention to frame a constitution for any of said rebel States, nor shall any such person vote for members of such convention.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That until the people of said rebel States shall be by law admitted to representation in the Congress of the United States, any civil government which may exist therein shall be deemed provisional only, and in all respects subject to the paramount authority of the United States at any time to abolish, modify, control or supersede the same; and in all elections to any office under such provisional governments all persons shall be entitled to vote, and none others, who are entitled to vote under the provisions of the fifth section of this act; and no person shall be eligible to any office under such provisional governments who would be disqualified from holding office under the provisions of the third article of said constitutional amendment.

SCHUYLER COLFAX,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.
LAFAYETTE S. FOSTER,

Proposed Constitutional Amendment.

ARTICLE XIV.

Section 1. All persons born or naturalized in the United States and subject to the jurisdiction thereof are citizens of the United States and of the State wherein they reside. No State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States; nor shall any State deprive any person of life, liberty or property without due process of law, nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws.

SEC. 2. Representatives shall be apportioned among the several States according to their respective numbers, counting the whole number of persons in each State excluding Indians not taxed. But when the right to vote at any election for the choice of electors for President and Vice-President of the United States, representatives in Congress, executive and judicial officers of a State, or the members of the Legislature thereof, is denied to any of the male inhabitants of such State being twenty-one years of age and citizens of the United States, or in any way abridged except for participation in rebellion or other crime, the basis of representation therein shall be reduced in the proportion which the number of such male citizens shall bear to the whole number of male citizens twenty-one years of age in such State.

SEC. 3. No person shall be a Senator or Representative in Congress, or elector of President and Vice-President, or hold any office, civil or military, under the United States or under any State, who, having previously taken an oath as a member of Congress, or as an officer of the United States, or as a member of any State Legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any State, to support the Constitution of the United States, shall have engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the same, or given aid and comfort to the enemies thereof. But Congress may, by a vote of two-thirds of each House, remove such disability.

SEC. 4. The validity of the public debt of the United States authorized by law, including debts incurred for payment of pensions and bounties for services in suppressing insurrection or rebellion, shall not be questioned. But neither the United States nor any State shall assume or pay any debt or obligation incurred in aid of insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or any claim for the loss or emancipation of any slave; but all such debts, obligations and claims, shall be held illegal and void.

SEC. 5. The Congress shall have power to enforce by appropriate legislation the provisions of this article.

The following is the oath of office referred to in the 5th section of the bill, and also in the 6th of the Supplementary Bill:

An Act to Prescribe an Oath of Office and for Other Purposes.

Be it enacted, That hereafter any person elected or appointed to any office of honor or profit under the government of the United States, either in the civil, military or naval department of the public service, except the President of the United States, shall before entering upon the duties of such office, and before being entitled to any of the salary or other emolument thereof, take and subscribe the following oath or affirmation: "I, A B, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I have never voluntarily borne arms against the U. S. since I have been a citizen thereof; that I have voluntarily given no aid, countenance, counsel or encouragement to persons engaged in armed hostility thereto; that I have never sought nor accepted, nor attempted to exercise the functions of any office whatever, under any authority, or pretended authority, in hostility to the United States; that I have not yielded a voluntary support to any pretended government, authority, power or constitution within the United States, hostile or inimical thereto; and I do further swear (or affirm) that to the best of my knowledge and ability, I will support and defend the constitution of the United States against all enemies, foreign and domestic; that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the same; that I take this obligation freely, without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion, and that I will well and faithfully discharge the duties of the office on which I am about to enter. So help me God," which oath, so taken and signed, shall be preserved among the files of the Court, Houses of Congress, or the department to which said officer may appertain. And any person who may falsely take said oath shall be guilty of perjury, and on conviction, in addition to the penalties now prescribed for that offence, shall be deprived of his office, and rendered incapable, forever after, of holding any office or place under the United States.

Approved July 2, 1862

SUPPLEMENT TO THE STEVENS-SHERMAN-SHELLABARGER BILL.

AN ACT supplemental to an act entitled an act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States, passed March 2, 1867, and to facilitate restoration.

Be it enacted, &c., That before the first day of September, 1867, the commanding general in each district defined by the act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States, approved March 2, 1867, shall cause a registration to be made of the male citizens of the United States, twenty-one years of age, and upwards, resident in each county or parish in the State or States included in his district, which registration will include only those persons who are qualified to vote for delegates by the act aforesaid, and who shall have taken and subscribed the following oath or affirmation:

"I, ——, do solemnly swear, or affirm, in the presence of Almighty God, that I am a citizen of the State of ——; that I have resided in said State for —— months next preceding this day, and now reside in the county of ——, or the parish of ——, in said State, as the case may be; that I am 21 years old; that I have not been disfranchised for participation in any rebellion or civil war against the United States, nor for felony committed against the laws of any State or of the United States; that I have never been a member of any State Legislature, or held any executive or judicial office in any State, and afterwards engaged in insurrection and rebellion against the United States, and given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof; that I have never taken an oath as a member of Congress of the United States, or as an officer of the United States, or as a member of any State Legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any State, to support the Constitution of the United States, and afterwards engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof; that I will faithfully support the Constitution and obey the laws of the United States, and will, to the best of my ability, encourage others so to do. So help me God." which oath or affirmation may be administered by any registering officer.

SEC. 2. That after the completion of the registration hereby provided for in any State at such time and place therein as the commanding general shall appoint and direct, of which at least thirty day's public notice shall be given, an election shall be held of delegates to a convention for the purpose of establishing a constitution and civil government for such State loyal to the Union; said convention in each State, except Virginia, to consist of the same number of members as the most numerous branch of the State Legislature of such State in the year 1860, to be apportioned among the several districts, counties, or parishes of such State by the commanding general, giving to each, representation in the ratio of voters registered as aforesaid as nearly as may be. The convention in Virginia shall consist of the same number of members as represented the territory now constituting Virginia in the most numerous branch of the Legislature of said State in the year 1860, to be apportioned as aforesaid.

SEC. 3. That at such election the registered voters of each State shall vote for or against a convention to form a constitution thereof under this act. Those voting in favor of such a convention shall have written or printed on the ballots by which they vote for delegates, as aforesaid, the words "for a convention;" and those voting against such a convention shall have written or printed on such ballots the words "against a convention." The persons appointed to superintend said election, and to make return of the votes given thereat, as herein provided, shall count and make return of the votes given for and against a convention; and the commanding general, to whom the same shall have been returned, shall ascertain and declare the total vote in each State for and against a convention. If a majority of the votes given on that question shall be for a convention, then a convention shall be held, as hereinafter provided; but if a majority of said votes shall be against a convention, then no convention shall be held under this act: Provided, That such convention shall not be held unless a majority of all such registered voters shall have voted on the question of holding such convention.

SEC. 4. That the commanding general of each district shall appoint such loyal officers or persons as may be necessary, not exceeding three in each election district, in any State, to make and complete the registration, superintend the election, and make return to him of the votes, lists of voters and of the persons elected as delegates by a plurality of the votes cast at said election; and upon receiving said returns he shall open the same, ascertain the persons elected as delegates according to the returns of the officers who conducted said election, and make proclamation thereof; and if a majority of the votes given on that question shall be for a convention, the commanding general, within sixty days from the date of election, shall notify the delegates to assemble in convention at a time and place to be mentioned in the notification, and said convention, when organized, shall proceed to frame a Constitution and civil government according to the provisions of this act, and the act to which it is supplementary; and when the same shall have been so framed, said Constitution shall be submitted by the convention for ratification to the persons registered under the provisions of this act, at an election to be conducted by the officers, or persons appointed by the commanding general as hereinbefore provided, and to be held after the expiration of thirty days from the date of notice thereof to be given by said convention, and the returns thereof shall be made to the commanding general of the district.

SEC. 5 That if, according to said returns, the constitution shall be ratified by a majority of the votes of the registered electors qualified as herein specified, cast at said election, at least one-half of all the registered voters voting upon the question of such ratification, the president of the convention shall transmit a copy of the same, duly certified, to the President of the United States, who shall forthwith transmit the same to Congress, if then in session, and if not in session, then immediately upon its next assembling; and if it shall moreover appear to Congress that the election was one at which all the registered and qualified electors in the State had an opportunity to vote freely and without restraint, fear or the influence of fraud, and if Congress shall be satisfied that such constitution meets the approval of a majority of the qualified electors in the State, and if the said constitution shall be declared by Congress to be in conformity with the provisions of the act to which this is supplementary, and the other provisions of said act shall have been complied with, and the said constitution shall be approved by Congress, the State shall be declared entitled to representation, and Senators and Representatives shall be admitted therefrom as herein provided.

SEC. 6. That all elections in the States mentioned in the said "Act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States," shall, during the operation of said act, be by ballot; and all officers making the said registration of voters and conducting said elections shall, before entering upon the discharge of their duties, subscribe an oath faithfully to perform the duties of their said office, and the oath prescribed by the act approved July 2, 1862, entitled "An act to prescribe an oath of office:" Provided, That if any person shall knowingly and falsely take and subscribe any oath in this act prescribed, such person so offending, and being thereof duly convicted, shall be subject to the pains, penalties and disabilities which by law are provided for the punishment of the crime of wilful and corrupt perjury.

SEC. 7. That all expenses incurred by the several commanding generals, or by virtue of any orders issued or appointments made by them under or by virtue of this act, shall be paid out of any moneys in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated.

SEC. 8.
